

13) Relative adverbs

14) Interrogative adverbs

Sentence

1) A sentence is a group of words which makes a complete sense.

OR

1) A completely meaningful combination of different words is called a sentence.

eg: He is my friend

She acceded to my request

The boys were making a noise etc

Classification of sentences on basis of meaning.

i) Assertive OR declarative sentences:

These sentences simply tell us that some action or event has taken place or not.

- e.g: Riaz is a hardworking boy.
- They do not agree to your proposal.
- Alexam is not writing a letter.

ii) Interrogative Sentences:

These are the sentences which ask questions.

- e.g:- where are you going?
- Is it raining outside?
- What is the time by your mobile?

iii) Imperative Sentences:

These are the sentences which express some request, order, advise or proposal.

- e.g; Polish my shoes.
- Do not waste your time.
- Please give me your book.

iv) Exclamatory Sentences:

These ~~are~~ ~~the~~ sentences express some strong feeling of mind as joy, sorrow,

Surprise or wonder.

e.g.; Alas! They have lost the match.

Hurrah! We have won the match.

What a beautiful world!

What a charming season!

v) Optative Sentences:

These sentences express some wish or prayer.

e.g.; ~~It~~ would that we were rich.

May you get good marks in exams?

⇒ Classification of sentences basis on Construction.

i) Simple sentence:

It is a sentence which has only one predicate or finite verb.

e.g.; Aslam killed a snake.

His courage won his honour.

Rizwan is going to help his friend.

ii) Compound sentences:

These sentences consists of two or more clauses of equal rank joined together by some coordinating conjunction. These clauses are independent of each other.

- e.g: Night came on and rain fell heavily and we all got very wet.
- I love ~~him~~<sup>him</sup> but he hated me.

iii) Complex sentence:

These sentence which contains one main or principle clause / independent clause and one or more dependent clause is called complex sentence.

- e.g: They waited till the light came.